Free the Internet Gamblers

Put Your Money on Lady Liberty

Last year, Congress passed a law to protect seaports from terrorists.

They struck a deadly blow, against...
Internet poker players.

They banned internet gambling.

No one in their right mind thinks internet gamblers are international terrorists.
Except Congressmen.

So how do you make a bullying Congress give you back that deck of internet playing cards? Remember: Until last year, those were your cards.

There's only one answer: Bet on Libertarians. We're the one party that supports your right to gamble over the internet. To support a real Libertarian, go to <http://phillies2008.org/donation>.

What if you're not quite ready to bet your shirt on a Libertarian hand? We're talking poker here. Why not bluff a bit? Your donation to Phillies 2008 makes Republicans and Democrats wonder:

Will you fold your bet on the Libertarians?

Or will you discard the donkey and the elephant to stay with Lady Liberty?

Make the Democrats and Republicans sweat it out. They're betting internet poker players don't really care about their friendly game of skill. They're betting internet gamblers will fold because their Congressional mommy and daddy stole the deck.

Show Congress the color of your money. Show Congress you play for keeps. Send your check to Phillies 2008, POB 29, Monson MA 01057 or give electronically at <http://www.phillies2008.com/donation>.
